WHAT WAS ON TV? I have watched TV twice in my life. Certainly I do not pretend that by simply refusing to keep up with the latest news I am therefore unaffected by what goes on, or free of it all. Certainly events happen and they affect me as they do other people. It is important for me to know about them too: but I refrain from trying to know about them in their fresh condition as "news". The news reaches me in the long run through books and magazines, and no longer as a stimulant. Living with out news is like living without cigarettes. The need for this habitual indulgence quickly disappears. So, when you hear news without the "need" to hear it, it treats you differently. And you treat it differently too. In this perspective you are perhaps able to distinguish the real happening from the pseudo-event. -- Merton

TO AVOID DISCRIMINATION AGAINST ANY PARTICULAR NATIONALITY from Central Europe we omit the nationality of the fox in the following story!! A fox caught its foot in a trap. Traditionally they bite their leg off to free themselves from the trap. This particular fox bit off three of its legs and discovered that he was still caught.

A MISSIONARY IN A NATIVE VILLAGE IN CENTRAL AFRICA insisted on performing the full Christian marriage ceremony for all the adults of the tribe. Later he said to the tribal chief, 'Don't you all feel much better now that you've been through the marriage service?' 'Oh yes-we're all very happy', chuckled the chief. 'Everybody got new wives.'

MANY PEOPLE HAVE NOTHING BUT PRAISE FOR THE CHURCH, ESPECIALLY WHEN THE COLLECTION PLATE IS HANDED ROUND.

GOD'S BLANK CHECK ON HAPPINESS IS MADE OUT TO YOU. HOW ARE YOU FILLING IT IN?

LET THERE BE PEACE IN THE VALLEY.
