Please call Susan Brewl (745-4665) if you can help.

PALMER CHURCH CLEANING: We are grateful to all who have been helping in church cleaning and straightening-up during this month of November, especially the Rogan family, Marilyn Zeck, Marie Agre, and all the Bazaar workers on the clean-up crew headed by Ray George, but above all Rick Espen who came back to work on the final clean-up until one a.m. We also are grateful to those who after today's pancake breakfast will stay to prepare the church for our Thanksgiving Mass and Reception. Some tables can remain up for that event.

For the month of December we ask those living in the Springer System and along the Anchorage Highway South of Palmer to each give at least one weekend's help during the Advent and Christmas season. Cleaning materials are kept in the Men's Room. Trash should be emptied in the containers near the rectory. We list below those living in the designated area and ask your pardon for any names missed or misplaced.

THE CATHOLIC DIGEST FOR DECEMBER IS HERE AND AT A PRICE REDUCED FROM 60¢ to 50¢. Try out an issue! Articles are on the Vatican Museum, the "Lilies of the Field", the new Deacon program for parishes, single Catholics, fatherhood, hope, on how to listen to others, the Mass and the Church today, X-rays, amnesia, visiting parents, the value of pennies, saving energy, and several Christmas articles: on Christmas cards, Christmas shopping, Christmas customs, and even the Christmas donkey of Bethlehem. All for half a dollar!

TODAY THERE WILL BE "OPEN HOUSE" BEFORE, DURING, AND AFTER OUR PANCAKE BREAKFAST FOR:

- OUR RENEWED CHAPEL: Inspect the confessional (both sides), Sister Elizabeth's plaques, the icons (one still coming), the newly located stations & statues, and the new entreeway behind Our Lady's shrine.
- THE MONSIGNOR JAMES P. SNEAD MEMORIAL MUSEUM & ST. MICHAEL'S ORIGINAL LOG CHURCH. A path leads through the snow alongside the rectory and across the street to our old church.
The museum is in the old rectory, approached through the side door. Harland and Collette Grower, as the museum "curators", will guide you through the exhibits. When you look at the old pews, let them know if you'd be interested in helping construct some more in the original style. See the attached sheet for more details on the museum.

NEXT SUNDAY, DECEMBER 1, AT 3 P.M., THE COMMUNITY CHOIR WILL PRESENT IN OUR SULZMAN HALL ITS ANNUAL CHRISTMAS CHORALE. NO ADMISSION CHARGE!

CONGRATULATIONS TODAY TO QUINT HULL AND BILLY BLAKE WHO ARE RECEIVING FIRST HOLY COMMUNION
TODAY AT WASILLA, ON THIS FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING.

THANKSGIVING: Thanksgiving Mass at 10 a.m. in Palmer. Holy Mass will be concelebrated by St. Michael's "old" and "new" pastors! Come and "give thanks to the Lord Our God," Bring some refreshments and snacks for the reception that follows. This is your first chance to meet your new pastor, Father John Marx.

THANKSGIVING COLLECTION: The ushers will take up your offerings at the Thanksgiving Mass to help cover the cost of our CCD children's after-school liquid refreshments (cocoa is provided by the parish for each child coming weekdays to religious instructions at the Palmer and Wasilla churches).

THANKSGIVING DINNER: Do you know of a lonely person who would enjoy Thanksgiving dinner with a family? If you do, make the contact and call 745-4665.
