Parish Announcements:

Survey Results: As of this date only 38 forms out of the 139 mailed out, have been returned. Of those received, 63% indicated Housing for Priest as No. 1 priority; 26% indicated Classrooms as No. 2 priority. The survey also shows that Religious Education has top priority in our parish; 79% indicated an interest in an adult program with special interest in an up-dating with regards to the teachings of the Church. The survey also shows that 92% would support a building program. Out of the 38 forms, 35 said yes, 1 said "no, because I am 15", another said "depends on" and still another, "within reason". If you have not done so, you can still send in your survey form.

WYCO: This Monday, Feb. 18, is the beginning of a series of courses to be offered to our youth (grades 9-12). The classes are two sessions each.

1. Comparative Religions - Taught by Mr. Rich Meneghelli. It is a brief study of the different religions in the world.
2. Who is Jesus? Mr. Pat Ventgen and Miss Jackie Keefe will conduct this class on Jesus, the God-man, his relevance to our lives, Jesus as a personal friend... Also a special discussion on the "Jesus Movement".
3. Church and Churches - A study of the meaning of church and a close look at the Catholic Church and Parish life. Fr. Fred Bugarin and Mrs. Barbara Schmit will offer this course.

**We ask all of our youth (and their friends) to avail themselves of this great opportunity to broaden their knowledge of their faith. Time: 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. on Mondays. (No ride is no excuse. Call us.)

ST. BENEDICT'S CHOIR: A reminder that next Sunday the 25th, the Adult and Children's Choirs from St. Benedict's will be with us at the 9:15 a.m. mass. This promises to be a special treat for all of us so let's fill the church to over-flowing and make these people welcome.

THE VALLEY CHRISTIAN BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S COUNCIL cordially invites you to a Guest Night buffet dinner. Bring a running mate. Speaker: Dr. Curtis Menard, Dentist, Little Dribbler Coach, Babe Ruth Coach, Pilot, Hunter. For more information and reservations contact Margie Salisbury at 376-5112 or Rosalie Schuette at 745-4388. Advance ticket is necessary. The date is Feb. 20th, 7 to 9 p.m. at Settler's Bay. Fee is $12.50.
