INTER-PARISH COUNCIL MEETING: A joint-council meeting between the parishes of Sacred Heart and St. Benedict's was held on March 7th at St. Benedict's Parish Hall. This initial exchange of ideas and dreams was followed by a planning meeting of delegates from both Councils. The purpose of the meeting was to exchange strengths and weaknesses of council and parish structure and to provide input to these areas. The meeting was reassuring and helpful to both parishes.

THE STUDY GROUP meeting each Friday following the 9 a.m. Mass continues to be attended by parishioners of Sacred Heart interested in a study of the Papal Message. All parishioners are invited to come and share this fruitful dialogue.

If you constantly compare yourself with others, you may become either unhappy or boastfully proud, for there will always be people greater or lesser than you. Remember that your mediocre gifts may contribute more towards the success of some project than the extraordinary talents of another. Believe in the worthiness of what you can do and be content in doing the best you can.

What is Christ to me?

You ask: "What is Christ to me?"
Without Him what would I be?
He's the very Light of Life,
With Him peace, without Him strife.

He's my guide day by day,
Without Him, I know I'd stray.
In my weakness, He is strong,
Fills my life with joyous song.

Takes my burdens one and all,
Holds me so I cannot fall.
A friend He is most dear,
With Him I need not fear.
Today and every day the same,
He's my Savior, bless His name.
