WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS

A sincere WELCOME to newly registered parishioners

Paul and Terry Kvernplassen and Erik (age 2 months).

CATHOLIC SOCIAL SERVICES is offering a SELF-CONFIDENCE WORKSHOP which is being conducted by Mr. Jim Brenner. This will be to help improve self-confidence, assertiveness and self-disclosure. For information and sign-up please call Cindy Book at 277-2554.

THANK YOU to all the parishioners who are continuing to make payments on their Project Advance pledges even though they are not being billed monthly. The response to Project Advance this year has been very good with over 85% of the amount pledged having been received. Let's make it 100%!

I leave you my unpaid debts. They are my greatest assets. Everything I own, I owe:

1. To America I owe a debt for the opportunity it gave me to be free and to be me.
2. To my parents I owe America. They gave it to me and I leave it to you. Take good care of it.
3. To the biblical tradition I owe the belief that man does not live by bread alone, nor does he live alone at all. This is also the democratic tradition. Preserve it.
4. To the six million of my people and to the thirty million other humans who died because of man's inhumanity to man, I owe a vow that it must never happen again.
5. I leave you not everything I never had, but everything I had in my lifetime: a good family, respect for learning, compassion for my fellow man and some four-letter words for all occasions: words like help, give, care, feel and love.

Love, my dear grandchildren, is easier to recotament than to define. I can tell you only that like those who came before you, you will surely know when love ain't; you will also know when mercy ain't and brotherhood ain't.

The millennium will come when all the "ain'ts" shall have become "ises" and all the "ises" shall be for all, even for those you don't like.

Finally, I leave you the years I should like to have lived so that I might possibly see whether your generation will bring more love and peace to the world than ours did. I not only hope you will. I pray that you will.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION and RELIGIOUS FORMATION

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION will be the topic for the Parish Council meeting on Saturday, August 22 from 6:30 - 9:00 P.M. In preparation for this evening, please write your concerns and place them in the CONCERN BOX in the church entry TODAY or you may wish to express your concerns to council members: Marilyn Chevalier, Richard Meneghelli, Nancy Seltenreich, or to Sister Elmer. Come, spend the evening with the council at St. Jude Center. Bring a dessert to share. Coffee and tea will be served.

CHILDREN'S BULLETINS are in the church entry. Help yourself.

BAZAAR PLANS - Although only eight members of St. Jude Guild attended the meeting last week, plans were made for the THIRD ANNUAL BAZAAR. A date has not been selected but it will be early in November. Now that the "rainy season" is upon us, all you ladies (men, too) get busy on your favorite craft project. Plans are to have the usual booths selling plants, books, linens, aprons, toys, Christmas decorations, and gifts. There will be a Santa's Workshop again (place where children can find items for Mom and Dad), and a Grab Bag booth. Start now collecting items for the grab bag - any article worth $1.00, put them in a paper bag and save for the Bazaar. Hopefully we will have enough help to operate bingo, food and baked goods, as well as a cake walk.

QUILT MAKERS - we need your help as we will be raffling another pieced quilt this year. Needed are 30 to 35 pieced blocks, finished size 12 1/2 inches, to be put together.

To make this event the fun and success it has been, please help!!

NEWS FROM CATHOLIC SOCIAL SERVICES: Catholic Social Services is considering the establishment of a satellite program in the Mat-Su Valley. This has been discussed for the past year and CSS recognizes the need in the Valley for the type of professional counseling they can provide in areas of family, foster homes, adoption, aid to the poor and needy, etc.

The first step in establishing this program is to determine the type and feasibility of such a project. Members of the Catholic Social Services staff are in the process of scheduling a meeting with the Parish Councils and other groups in the Communities to get their thoughts and feelings on the matter. This program will offer services not only to Catholics but to anyone in need. Sounds exciting!

HEALING MASS at St. Anthony's Church, Anchorage, on August 27th at 7:30 p.m. The theme is "Healing Prayer and Community." Celebrant will be Father Mike Shields. For further information call 333-5544.

Please begin to think about what contribution you can make to this opportunity to share your blessings with others less fortunate.

REMEMBER OUR BAZAAR COMING IN NOVEMBER!

POPE JOHN PAUL II
A Visit to Anchorage, Alaska, 1981

My Fellow Parishioners,

August 25, 1981

As you can imagine, it is with great excitement that we are responding to Pope John Paul's invitation. The committee in charge of arranging the "Pilgrimage of Faith" has completed its fundamental planning and has arranged 450 confirmed seats. This will include Tour 1 and Tour 2 as described on the brochures that you may pick up today. The brochures are also available at the Chancery Office.

As you can see, the prices that are being offered by Faith Tours present an opportunity to travel that is extremely reasonable. We expect a great response. In general, reservations will be on a first-come first-serve basis with choir members and spouses being given priority. Therefore, we urge you to make your plans as early as possible, so that we may assure you of accommodations for this exciting once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

The number of forms are limited. Take only the number that you need. Initially, Tour 1 Section 1 will be reserved for choir members.

The tour office will be open from 9:00 A.M. to 6:00 P.M. each weekday, Sept. 1 - 15, and from 10:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M. on Saturday, Sept. 12, for your convenience. The address and phone number for the tour office are printed on the brochure.

Yours in Christ,
/s/ Gene McGill
Committee Chairman
