ALL FRIDAYS of LENT 7:30 p.m. Mass.

We Catholics during the season of Lent are called by the Church to perform acts of personal self-sacrifice. Such sacrifice is a sign of our identity with the suffering of Christ, which brought about our redemption.

Give special attention to the kind and types of self-sacrifice suggested by the Bishops of the country:

Ash Wednesday: Fast and Abstinence

All Fridays of Lent: Abstinence

Good Friday: Fast and Abstinence

Abstinence is simply no meat.

Fast is only one full meal a day, two small collations, nothing in between.

Observance of these special days will be a sign of unity among Catholics in the United States.

LENT: A time for change of heart, a time to be renewed, a time to advance toward the paschal mystery. One hundred fifty people attended our 7:30 p.m. Mass on Ash Wednesday. "An excellent beginning!"

"The conversion of mankind and of the world in its entirety is possible only through participation in the paschal mystery of death and life. Lent is conceived precisely as a time of progress toward this mystery of liberation and renewal. Its purpose is that we should come with purified souls to the celebration of the paschal mystery."-Adrian Nocent.

OPERATION RICE BOWL, a lenten practice of prayer and sharing with the poor overseas, will begin today, the First Sunday of Lent. Please place the cardboard "rice bowls" you have received on your table at home during at least one meal every week during Lent. Eat a "sacrificial meal"--somewhat less than you ordinarily take--and place what you save in the rice bowl. Place money into an envelop, mark it RICE BOWL, and drop it into the collection. 75% of the money thus collected will be used for hunger projects overseas, and 25% will remain in the Archdiocese of Anchorage.

"COME TO ROME" Nearly four hundred seventy people are making the Pilgrimage of Faith. Our prayers go with them as they leave this week to represent Alaska in Rome. They, in turn, will remember all those "back home" and be united in prayer.

Also, thanks so much to Sr. Elmer, Sr. Benedice, and the Ladies of St. Jude's Guild for the lovely luncheon which they prepared and served the day of Martin's funeral. It was so thoughtful and such a help at that difficult time. Got Bless you all!
