OPERATION RICE BOWL: While most of us have sufficient food on our tables, millions of families overseas subsist on a meager diet, often lacking in the basic nutrition needs. Through continued parish participation in Operation Rice Bowl, we are reminded of the tragedy of hunger and how we can be of greater help to these families.

MASS OF THE OILS: Wednesday, March 31 at 7:30 p.m. at Holy Family Cathedral.

The Chrism Mass is one of the principal expressions of the fullness of the Bishop's priesthood and signifies the close unity of the priests with him. Ordinarily the Chrism Mass is celebrated on the morning of Holy Thursday, and is then the closing Mass of the Lenten Season. In our Archdiocese, because of the difficulties of geography and travel, the Chrism Mass is celebrated at a time when it is more convenient for most of the priests from out-lying areas to participate. The oils for sacramental use are: Oil of the Sick, Oil of the Catechumens, and Holy Chrism.

The Chrism Mass has for its theme Jesus, the anointed one of God. In this special Mass, the Church commemorates the Spirit being given to the Church in her sacraments. The oil which symbolically anointed Jesus as King, Priest and Prophet becomes after his glorification the sign of consecration, purification and joy. The Mass anticipates the celebrations of the next three days, and indeed the whole of Paschaltide. It becomes the special task of the bishop to commemorate what he represents --- the Ruling, Priestly and Teaching Office of Christ.

LETTER FROM THE ARCHBISHOP regarding Catholic Relief Services of the United States Bishops is read at all the Masses today.

It becomes the special task of the Bishop to commemorate what he represents --- the Ruling, Priestly and Teaching Office of Christ. People of the parish are invited to attend.

OPERATION RICE BOWL, which our parish has been participating in throughout Lent, is an experience of prayer, sacrifice and sharing with those less fortunate than ourselves. We encourage you to continue this weekly practice, which should lead us to a greater awareness of how we can respond to world hunger.

ROARING 20's, the organization for Catholic singles 19-29 years of age, will hold a weekend at St. Theresa's Camp, Soldotna, the weekend of April 2-4. For details contact the Catholic Youth Ministry Office at 279-3151.

TWO VISITS, the ecumenical service held at First Baptist Church on the first anniversary of the visit of Pope John Paul II to Anchorage, February 26, will be televised on KTV4, Channel 11, this coming Tuesday, March 30, at 8:00 p.m. The hour-long service features the 174 voice Anchorage Papal Choir which sang for the Holy Father in a private audience at the Vatican on March 13.

CATHOLIC SOCIAL SERVICES is offering a workshop, "What Husbands Wish Wives Knew About Men," on March 31, and April 7, 14, and 21 from 5-7 p.m. at Catholic Social Services. The workshop is being conducted by Jim Brenner and there is a $15.00 per session fee. For more information call Cindy Book at 277-2554.

THE ANNUAL LEGION OF MARY ACIES, a rededication to Mary, Mother of the Church, will be held on Sunday, March 28, at 2:00 p.m. at St. Benedict's Church, 8110 Jewel Lake Rd. All are invited to attend this consecration to our Lady. The speaker will be Fr. Paul Duffner, O.P., of Holy Family Cathedral. After Benediction, a reception will be held in the parish hall. CATHOLIC SOCIAL SERVICES will hold an open house at their new Day Care Center and Respite Program Office, 3327 Fairbanks (on the corner of 34th and Fairbanks), this Sunday, March 28, from 2-5 p.m. The open house will give CSS an opportunity to acquaint the community with the new programs and services available to the handicapped.

CATHOLIC YOUTH MINISTRY OFFICE will sponsor a 14-mile Good Friday Walk on Friday, April 9, beginning at 8:30 a.m. on the Delaney Park Strip with a prayer service. The 14-mile walk represents the 14 Stations of the Cross Christ walked on Good Friday. Youth are collecting pledges for the walk ($3.50 for the 14 miles) which will be used for Youth Ministry Projects and the Street Ministry of the Servants of Christ. For more information, registration, or to sponsor a walker, contact the Youth Ministry Office at 279-3151.
