

GREETINGS FROM FR. SCOTT June 29, 2014 Saints Peter and Paul

During business school, I learned the different skills needed to start a company, and then grow that company to be huge and profitable. I noticed that many people who had skills to get a business off the ground did not have the same skills needed to manage a larger company. Peter is like the Entrepreneur, while Paul is more like a CEO of a large company.

PETER'S RESUME

Flawed person
 Hard Headed, closed but focused mind
 Disowned Jesus three times
 An enormous heart
 Conservative thinker
 More introverted
 Entrepreneur, built foundation for Christians to flourish
 Protector of our faith
 Tended to trust only in his own wisdom
 Our first Pope (his bones are buried at the Vatican)

PAUL'S RESUME

Flawed person, killed Christians
 Liberal thinker
 A Missionary
 Very extroverted
 Intelligent
 Driven, zealous, determined
 Visionary, took Gospel to the ends of the earth
 CEO material, ability to grow the Christian church.

I don't like labeling people conservative or liberal, but let's face it, this is something human's do. Peter was a conservative thinker. Paul was a liberal thinker. Peter felt that only circumcised Jews could become Christian. Paul felt that anybody who wanted to become Christian could, circumcised or not. Peter and Paul actually argued and fought about this. Only through the workings of the Holy Spirit did these two great Saints realize each other's importance to the Church as a whole.

At the time of the early Christian Church, we needed Peter to build a strong foundation, and Paul to grow the church. Our Church still needs to work on strengthening its foundation and growing the members. To do this we need to have faith that the Holy Spirit will work in the lives of conservatives and liberals alike to bring us together in unity with Christ as our center.

God took Peter and Paul from flawed and struggling individuals and turned them into powerful witnesses to the Gospel. Their stories are much like our own.

My prayer for you is that you use the example of both Peter and Paul to realize that everyone is needed to build the Kingdom of God. Don't let pride get in your way of working with those with different views. Allow for the Holy Spirit to work through this Church and Parish for strength and growth. Be right with God with what you believe in your heart, but don't judge others for not doing what you do: that is God's job.

Thank you to all our friends and parishioners for making our recent craft sale a success.

THANK YOU

I would like to thank the parishioners of Sacred Heart for sharing the last 20 years together. To all of you who said yes whenever I called you will never know the difference you made in someone's life, especially the Funeral & Music Ministry. The church looks as beautiful as it does thanks to Dave Belanger, Art Gravely & Mike Schachle who always came when I called when something needed to be repaired.

To the students and staff of OLV my days were filled with joy watching you learn and grow in your faith. Friday mass was the highlight of my week.

Now the time has come to move to Colorado to be closer to my parents. Please pray for Dave & me as we start our journey this Saturday.

I would love to hear from you. My temporary address will be C/O Beverly Watts 3232 Salem St Aurora, CO 80011. May God bless each and everyone of you.

The beautiful painting of Sacred Heart that was a gift from all of you was greatly appreciated. Sheila English
